Couple injured in Sunday accident

A New Kent man was in serious condition at the Lynchburg General Hospital as the result of injuries sustained in a one-car smashup at 10 p.m. Sunday night on Route 24 in Brown's Store.

Walter Gordon Sharpe, 30, of New Kent, Va., was listed in fair condition in the intensive care unit at the hospital as of noon today (Monday).

Brown said Sharpe and his wife, Wanda Marie Blankenship, 26, also of New Kent, were traveling westbound on Route 24 when Sharpe apparently swerved to the left, crossed the eastbound lane and struck a utility pole.

Sharpe was thrown through the windshield of the vehicle and was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. Alfred Amatin.

Brown said Blankenship was transported to the Lynchburg General Hospital by the Appomattox Rescue Squad.

Sharpe suffered head injuries in the accident, according to Brown.

He added that the accident is still under investigation and that any charges are pending the outcome of investigations.

A NEW JEEP (VOLVER, see injured Sunday night in a single-car accident on Route 24 east of the Appomattox County line. The driver, Wanda Marie Blankenship, age 26, of New Kent, was listed in critical condition Monday following the accident, in which a woman, Wanda Marie Blankenship, age 26, of New Kent, was killed. Her husband, Walter Gordon Sharpe, 30, of New Kent, was also injured. Police say the car overturned several times, and Sharpe and Blankenship were thrown from the vehicle. Sharpe was pronounced dead on the scene by Dr. Alfred Amatin. The vehicle, shown above, was a total loss, according to police. (Photo by Warren Matton)

Abbitt speaks at shad planking

FLUVANNA THIS Shad Annual Shad Planking of the Wake-field Rurban Club are Gar. G. Abbitt, candidate for Lt. Gov. (left) and former Congressman Watkins M. Abbitt. The event, which drew over 4,000 persons attended the annual event. U. S. Rep. Caldwell was the keynote speaker in congress for over 36 years. Abbitt is now a candidate for Lt. Gov.
